Councilman Carl Brinkley has lived in Clifton Forge most of his life. He and his wife, Jenny, have raised two sons here and have found it to be a great place to live. He worked for the United States Postal Service for 42 years, retiring as Postmaster of Low Moor, VA. He also served with the Virginia Army National Guard for 30 years, retiring with the rank of Master Sergeant. Councilman Brinkley has served on the Free Clinic Board, Zoning Board Elder Board at the Clifton Forge Presbyterian Church, and is now serving on the Cliftdale Country Club Board, the Comprehensive Economic Development Strategy Committee Board and as Vice Chairman of the Industrial Development Authority Board. David, his oldest son, lives with his wife, Robin and two sons, Ryan and Colin in Powhatan, VA. His youngest son, Bill, lives with his wife, Amy and two children, Christian and Mary Alice, in Wilmington, NC. Councilman Brinkley's approach to governance is a conservative, cooperative and measured approach, accumulating additional debt only if it is absolutely necessary.
